On Saturday, October 15, Congressman John Barrow (GA-12) is hosting a Jobs Fair in Augusta to pair 12th District job seekers with local employers looking to hire.

"Far too many folks are still out of work, which is why job creation has got to be priority number one for our country," said Congressman Barrow. "I hope folks will stop by and meet with some local businesses that are looking to hire, or attend some of the workshops we're setting up to learn tips and tricks for landing the right job."

A full list of participating employers and workshops will announced as the date of the Jobs Fair approaches.
